2020 Midwest Graduate Student Society for Experimental Mechanics (SEM) Symposium

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to present your research!

When: March 7 and 8, 2020. Starting at 1:00 PM on Saturday and finishing at 12:00 PM on Sunday.

Where: Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa.

Participants: Graduate students and faculty in the field of experimental mechanics.

Abstract: An abstract (one-page limit) submission is required via the following link: https://iastate.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eRiRF0LvG91Btrf. Students with accepted abstracts will give a 15-minute oral presentation. Abstract submission will close on December 31, 2019.

Registration: There is no registration fee for both presenters and attendees. All meals will be provided. There will also be bowling on Saturday night. A link to register for the symposium will be made available in November 2019, at the following webpage: <https://www.me.iastate.edu/2020midweststudentsemsymposium/>.

Dress: Business casual.

NOTE

SEM (<https://sem.org/>) is composed of international members from academia, government, and industry who are committed to interdisciplinary application, research and development, education, and active promotion of experimental methods to: (a) increase the knowledge of physical phenomena; (b) further the understanding of the behavior of materials, structures and systems; and (c) provide the necessary physical basis and verification for analytical and computational approaches to the development of engineering solutions.

For questions, email Dr. Sarah A. Bentil (sbentil@iastate.edu) and put "2020 Midwest Student SEM Symposium", in the email's subject line.
